TIERED ISLAND HOT CASE

Expand presentation space with a two-tiered display surface

Thermostatically-controlled 'wedges' afford independent zoning for a wide variety of packaged and prepared foods

With BKI's self-serve tiered island hot case, hold a variety of items at varying temperatures for optimal product integrity and appeal. Vividly display prepared and packaged entrees and side items to stimulate customer interest and increase impulse sales. Built to hold constant and proper temperature, each individual 'wedge' has independent zoning so you can offer unlimited menu options to your customers.
